Formalities for all students and visitors arriving in Belgium

If you plan to travel to Belgium you must:

Read the latest travel tips

The Belgian Foreign Affairs and Sciensano, the Institute in charge of the Covid pandemic for Belgium, have provided color codes according to your countries of origin, with specific procedures to prevent the spread of the virus for each one.

The color codes are red - orange - green

These zones are published on the Foreign Affairs website and regularly updated.

Fill out a Passenger Locator Form within 48 hours before your arrival in Belgium
Formalities for all students arriving in Belgium

In the red zone of the EU or a country outside the EU: mandatory quarantine

PROCEDURE TO FOLLOW

In the EU Orange Zone: quarantine and screening recommended

PROCEDURE TO FOLLOW

In the green zone of the EU: vigilance for 14 days

PROCEDURE TO FOLLOW

The color codes according to geographical areas are published on the Foreign Affairs website and regularly updated.
Red zone: mandatory quarantine and a test

If you return from a red zone, you are quarantined for 14 days. Attention! A negative PCR test does not authorize you to shorten your quarantine.

The procedure to be followed and the assistance available is detailed on this page www.coronavirus.uliege.be

Registration?
Students in quarantine cannot attend the University for registration during their quarantine. There is no problem to register later, we will take into account your actual arrival date.
